DAYTON, Ohio, May 3, 1973 --- Dr. George Ruppel, full professor of History at the University of Dayton, has been appointed a reader of the 1973 Advanced Placement Examinations in American History. The reading session will take place on Friday, June 8, at Rider College in Central New Jersey.

The reading examinations last six days and demand full reading concentration for the period.

Dr. Ruppel has been at the University of Dayton since 1956. He has been a member of the Society of Mary, the Roman Catholic religious society which founded UD in 1850, since 1928.
